MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Yaw-Yaw-Yaw, Auditorium, May 12th.

—E. P. Ruhrah, of Chillicothe, was in the city Thursday.

—The annual Board of Trade banquet at the Bellevue Hotel Thursday evening was attended by one hundred or more of the leading citizens of the city and was the most successful and enjoyable social occasion in the history of the Board. The Marietta full orchestra added much to the pleasure of the evening. The spread placed by Miss Host Smith before the assembled gourmands was sumptuous in the extreme. After the banquet Toastmaster A. D. Follett delivered an eloquent and forcible address, dwelling in a general way upon the history, value and future of the Board of Trade and the growth and development of new and greater Marietta. Responses were made by R. C. Dawes, W. H. Leeper, C. S. Dana, Dr. J. W. Simpson, A. D. Alderman, George M. Cooke, W. M. Morse and A. N. Dyer, and though they consumed the time far into the wee small hours, all were listened to with keen attention.

—One hundred pairs lace curtains at reduced prices at Bee Hive.

—The rehearsal for Pinafore which was to have been held Thursday was postponed to this Friday evening on account of the Board of Trade meeting.

—The embezzlement case against Valentine Mercer, of Tunnel, was dismissed out of Squire Guyton's court for want of prosecution.

—The boilers for the new boiler works plant have arrived from Butler, Pa., and will be put in place without delay. Superintendent Hughes returned from Butler Thursday and informs us that the Penn Bridge Company is now loading the iron for the structure which will be shipped in a few days.

—A. E. Falloon, of Athens, is a business visitor in the city.

—See Jones' for Summer Dress Goods. It will pay you.

—James Kiduff arrived from New York last night and is registered at the Bellevue.

—D. W. Pickering, who recently resigned his position as agent of the C. & M. railway, has purchased an interest in the Diamond Pants Company.

—A son was born on Wednesday, May 6th, to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hufford, of Dunham.

—Phillip Cramer, of the Park Hotel, Butler, Pa., is in the city.

—Second millinery opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Bee Hive Store.

—Born, Thursday, May 7th, to Mr. and Mrs. John Sparling, of Veto, a daughter.

—The County Commissioners have for the third time granted the petition for the incorporation of Belpre village. Another fight is expected.

—Prof. A. M. Farlow, of Barlow, was in the city Thursday, enroute to Chillicothe.

—Gertrude Sayre returned home last evening from Sharon, Pa., where she has been on an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. Frank R. Elbert.

—Regular meeting of C. B. Gates Woman's Relief Corps this evening.

—Grand millinery opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week at Bee Hive.

—Arend & Smith, the bakers on upper Fourth street, are meeting with large success in their business, and have confidence that there is ahead of them a handsome trade.

—Mrs. E. H. Kidwell, West Side, will leave today for Lancaster, to visit friends for two weeks.

—Tonight is the date of the Aeolian Club concert at the Gillman avenue church. Here are the names of those who will take part: First mandolin, Mrs. Pearl Brabham, Messrs. Gibson, Schnauffer and Strecker; second mandolin, Gertrude Strahl; mandola, H. L. Theis; guitar, Misses Walter, Strecker and Zeigler, and Mr. Brabham; violin, Helen Strahl.

—Mr. Maximilian Dick the great Violinist, Auditorium, Tuesday May 12th.

—A special dispatch from Havana, under date of May 6th, says: James Creelman, correspondent of the New York World here, and Frederick W. Lawrence, correspondent of The Journal, of New York, have been expelled from the island on the ground that they have calumniated Captain General Weyler, the government and the army, and have attributed insurgent's crimes to the Spanish army. They have been ordered to leave Cuba by the first steamer sailing.

—Miss Myrtle Hill, of Canal Dover, is visiting friends in the city.

—Capt. C. R. Stull, of Beverly, is in command of the Steamer Sonoma during the temporary absence of Capt. E. W. Webster.

—Several complaints have been made of a species of vandalism that is not only annoying, but exceedingly aggravating to the victims. During the past week flower beds in various localities in the city have been robbed of the flowers and in some instances entirely destroyed. Such petty thieving is most detestable and the authorities are prepared to give the vandals, if caught, a lesson that will not soon be forgotten.

—Special sale of lace curtains at Bee Hive.

—The Ohio legislature has passed a law making it the duty of township trustees upon petition of 10 freeholders to erect guide posts at each cross roads at a cost not to exceed $5 each. Should the trustees fail to do this for 60 days the petitioner may have the posts erected and charge the cost to the township trustees.—[Ex.]

—The police of Sistersville have strict orders from the Mayor to kill every dog, no matter of what kind, hereafter found unmuzzled on the streets of that city. Sistersville evidently does not propose to take chances on hydrophobia.

—H. L. Preston, editor of the Kansas City Sunday Sun, was arrested last week on warrants charging him with criminal libel and with publishing an immoral paper. He forfeited a bond of $2000 and left the city. He was found at St. Joseph, Mo., hiding in a box car and was taken back to Kansas City and sent to jail. Preston has caused more disgust with journalism than any man in America. His paper has been a terror to decent people, and a source of delight to evil doers. It is to be hoped that his career as an editor is ended and that his paper will be suppressed.—[Ex.]
